

Works Cited

Primary sources:

A Multinational Team at the Sequent Computer Center in New York. New York.

This is a photo I used on my website about Samneang Moul. She was in America for a training job.

At a Hotel Lobby in Bangkok Expecting Fr. John Bingham. Bangkok.

This is a photo I used in my website about Samneang Moul when she was in the hotel lobby in Bangkok expecting to see her results from an interview.

Buses Transferring to Transit Center. 1993.

This is a photo Cher Yeng Khang took. I used it for my website and source buses were the transportation besides plane.

First Photo In a New House. 1995.

This is a photo Cher Yeng Khang took. The photo is of his family in America with their cultural Hmong clothing.

Khang, Cher Y. "Interview with My Dad, Cher Yeng Khang." 2019.

Cher. Y. Khang took majority of the photos I used. The interview was used in my paper with barriers he's faced. He shared many details on his journey from Laos, to Ban Vinai, and what it was like to be in the transit center. He also shared his thoughts and feelings when living in America.

Moul, Samneang. "Interview with Cambodian Refugee." 12 Dec. 2019.

Samneang Moul is one of the cambodian refugees I interviewed. She so graciously provided more information to me with questions I had. I used her photos for my website, and the barriers she's faced in my paper.

Moul Sokha, Samneang's Sister, Died in 1977. Phnom Penh.

This is a photo I used in my website. It is a photo of Samneang Moul's sister who died when fleeing from war.

Moul Varun, Samneang's Sister, Also Died in 1977. Phnom Penh.

This is a photo I used in my website. It is a photo of Samneang Moul's sister who died when fleeing from war.

Nou Yeb, Samneang Mother Prior to Khmer Rouge. Phnom Penh.

This is a photo I used in my website. It is a photo of Samneang Moul's mother before they fled from war.

Paperwork for My Family. 1993.

This is a photo I used in my website. It is also a photo of my family's paperwork in America.

Receiving Food From the Thai Government. 1987.

This is a photo that was taken at the time. I used it because it was the Thai government giving the refugees food.

Rushing along New York Street to Get Fast Food Lunch after the Training. New York.

A photo of Samneang in America. The photo provided what Moul did in New York besides train for her new job.

Samneang on Her Old Bike Rusing to UNTAC Reporting to Her Work. Phnom Penh.

This is a photo of her when she stayed with Sister Denise. I used this in my website as a visual.

Transferring to Phanat Nikhom Process Center. 1992.

This is a photo I used in my website. It was as photo of my family's journey to America.

Vietnamese Refugees Waiting to Be Collected in the China Sea on Board the French Hospital Ship "Island of Light". China Sea, 8 July 1979.

This is a photo I used on my website. It provided what transportation was like.

Vietnamese Refugees Waiting to Be Taken Aboard the USS Blue Ridge during a Rescue Operation 350 Miles (563 Km) Northeast of Cam Ranh Bay. Ranh Bay, Vietnam, 1984.

This is a photo I used on my website. It provided what refugees looked like on the boat. It wasn't spacious for everyone. It also doesn't even compare to the more advanced built boats we have now.

Visiting Brooklyn Bridge for the First Time with Tom Riddle, August '92. Brooklyn.

This is a photo of Samneang Moul. She was in America for job training. This provided evidence of her in America trying to overcome her trauma during the genocide.

Secondary Sources:

Calma, Justine. "Forty Years After Resettlement, Thousands of Southeast Asian Refugees Face Deportation." NBCNews.com, NBCUniversal News Group, 23 Nov. 2015, www.nbcnews.com/news/asian-america/forty-years-after-resettlement-thousands-southeast-asian-refugees-face-deportation-n466376.

This website provided through all the trauma refugees face. It provided stories of refugees talking about barriers they still have to break.

Chen, Michelle. "Southeast Asian Refugees Are the Latest Victims of Trump's Deportation Crackdown." The Nation, 3 Jan. 2019, www.thenation.com/article/southeast-asian-refugees-deportation/.

This website provided Southeast Asian refugees and how they feel about deportation. I used it for stories, and to get a sense of what most refugees felt like during the 1970s.

"I Was A Boat Person: Vietnamese Refugees Look Back." YouTube, YouTube, www.youtube.com/watch?v=UQTviKM9Mx0.

The source was a video of a refugee who was a former boat person. She battled through a lot of trauma, and helped me get a sense of what the Vietnamese boat people faced.

"Immigration." SEARAC, www.searac.org/programming/national-state-policy-advocacy/immigration/.

This is a source that provides a lot of information about Southeast Asian refugees. It was one of my first sources that helped me get a sense of what I was researching.

"Looking Back On the Vietnam War Refugee Crisis." Historical Society of Pennsylvania, hsp.org/blogs/fondly-pennsylvania/looking-back-vietnam-war-refugee-crisis.

This is another source I used to get refugee stories. It provided me with basic information as well as enhanced my knowledge about the war.

McGreal, Chris. "Vietnamese Boat People: Living to Tell the Tale." The Guardian, Guardian News and Media, 20 Mar. 2016, www.theguardian.com/global/2016/mar/20/vietnamese-boat-people-survivors-families.

Another source that provided me with a first hand Vietnamese refugee who escaped through a boat. I used it for their story in my website.

Nguyen, Peter. "I Feel As If We Will Never Reunite Again." Medium, HOMECOMING, 7 Feb. 2017, medium.com/homecoming/chapter-1-i-feel-as-if-we-will-never-reunite-again-789090ecb3b3.

A first hand look at his parents who were refugees. His mom wrote letters to her husband who was in the Navy. The letter included how scared she was. I used this for the mental and physical barriers she faced.

"Remembering When Southeast Asia Refugees Dominated Discussions." NPR, NPR, 29 Dec. 2015, www.npr.org/2015/12/29/461352935/remembering-when-southeast-asia-refugees-dominated-discussions.

This source provided the impacts of refugees as a whole. It is important to never forget their roots. With all the discrimination most of the refugees faced.

Samneang, Moul. "A Frog Leap to New York City." Born in the Wrong Place at the Wrong Time, 9 Jan. 2010, genocidesurvivor2.blogspot.com/.

This is Samneang Moul's blog, she wrote her story. I used this in my website and in my paper. The blog provided a first hand look of a Cambodian refugee. The barriers she's been facing since the age of 11.

Samneang, Moul. "Born in the Wrong Place at the Wrong Time." Born in the Wrong Place at the Wrong Time, 30 Nov. 2013, genocidesurvivor.blogspot.com/.

The barriers she's been facing since the age of 11. I used this in my website and in my paper. The blog provided a first hand look of a Cambodian refugee.

Samneang, Moul. "Life of Refugees." Life of Refugees, 15 Feb. 2011, samneangmoul.blogspot.com/.

The Cambodian refugee I interviewed. She provided a first hand look of barriers she's been facing since the age of 11.

Samneang, Moul. "Looking for Shelter and Safety Net." Born in the Wrong Place at the Wrong Time, 9 Jan. 2010, genocidesurvivor3.blogspot.com/.

The Cambodian refugee I interviewed. She provided a first hand look of barriers she's been facing since the age of 11.

Samneang, Moul. "The World Upside Down." Born in the Wrong Place at the Wrong Time, 9 Jan. 2010, genocidesurvivor4.blogspot.com/.

The Cambodian refugee I interviewed. She provided a first hand look of barriers she's been facing since the age of 11.

"The Vietnam War and Its Effect on Vietnamese Refugees." Arcgis.com, www.arcgis.com/apps/Cascade/index.html?appid=4abb0d406b784d8984784ed18691266

a.

Stories and real life people who lived through a traumatizing era in history. It was the aftermath and how the Vietnamese refugees pushed through it.

“The Vietnam War and Its Impact - Refugees and ‘Boat People.’” Encyclopedia of the New American Nation, www.americanforeignrelations.com/O-W/The-Vietnam-War-and-Its-Impact-Refugees-and-boat-people.html.

Stories and real life people who lived through a traumatizing era in history. It was the aftermath and how the Vietnamese refugees pushed through it.

Tertiary sources:

CoolBen, Admin. “The Vietnamese Boat People.” Association for Diplomatic Studies & Training, 16 Mar. 2018, adst.org/2014/07/the-vietnamese-boat-people/.

This is a website that gave me a sense of the boat people. Background information on why these people are fleeing.

The Editors of Encyclopaedia Britannica. “Boat People.” Encyclopædia Britannica, Encyclopædia Britannica, Inc., 5 Nov. 2015, www.britannica.com/topic/boat-people-refugees.

I used this source for background information. It gave summaries of what happened. It explains a lot about the situation and the environment they faced.

"Cambodian Civil War." Wikipedia, The Free Encyclopedia. Wikipedia, The Free Encyclopedia, 4 Dec. 2019. Web. 12 Dec. 2019.

I used this source for background information. It provided sources at the bottom to look at.

"Vietnamese boat people." Wikipedia, The Free Encyclopedia. Wikipedia, The Free Encyclopedia, 3 Dec. 2019. Web. 12 Dec. 2019.

I used this source for background information. It provided sources at the bottom to look at.

"Vietnam War." Wikipedia, The Free Encyclopedia. Wikipedia, The Free Encyclopedia, 11 Dec. 2019. Web. 12 Dec. 2019.

I used this source for background information. It provided sources at the bottom to look at.

"What Caused the Cambodian Civil War?" Study.com, 9 April 2017, study.com/academy/lesson/what-caused-the-cambodian-civil-war.html

A background source I used to understand what was going on. It has the main reasons why people needed to seek safety and barriers the war caused for refugees.